OUTREACH PROGRAMME:

Teaching English in rural area is very important. English is global language. It is the window to the whole world. We, the faculty members of English department visited small village Benachinamardi to create awareness of English as global language.

We visited school and distributed English chart to the students. The charts of vegetables Birds and animals, distributed the students. We gave the knowledge to develop the spoken English skill. The communication skills and the body language. This was the Outreach-Programme conducted along with the Red Cross Unit, who distributed the mask to the students. In this outreach-programme, Dr. B. M. Turadagi spoke about the importance of language, health and awareness of English in the rural areas.

Prof: A. V. Patil expressed importance of English language skills.

The headmaster and teacher co-operated and graced this function with full energy. He also told us that how they help the students to develop different languages.

This programme was graced by our principal Dr. Ashalata. S. Terdal, Red-Cross Unit Co-ordinator shri A. K. Killiket, another Red-Cross Unit co-ordinator Prof: Jyothi polashi and Smt. Sunena Kalgudi. They actively participated in the programme. It touched the hearts of the students and all the school teachers and students actively participated in the programme.

All faculty members of the department are actively involved in the outreach programme. Dr. Ashalata s. Terdal, principal, Prof A. V. Patil and Smt. Sunena Kalagudi visited the village and created awareness of English as an international language in non-English speaking areas. The faculty is trying to give the message of English as a global language and its importance in the world.
