COMMITTEE FOR SC/ST CELL

Schedule Caste and Schedule Tribes have been recognized as the most backward groups of Indian society. They include different castes and tribes which have been socio-economically backward. The cell has been established to support and bring students from such communities to the main stream. The college takes special interest in facilitating these students with financial support from government and non-government agencies.

The Principal is the Chairman of this committee, which looks after the welfare of SC/ST students. This cell is responsible for implementing schemes from the Government of India, UGC, and State Government for scholarships and stipends.

Objectives:

- To counsel and guide SC/ST students.
- To resolve issues related to SC/ST students.
- To give information regarding reservation policies.
- To supervise the distribution of scholarships for SC/ST students.
- To provide support to students in areas where they experience difficulties.
- To promote awareness programs.
- To implement policies to create a more inclusive and equitable society.

Activities of the cell:

- To collect information and maintain records of SC/ST students.
- To circulate government notifications.

DISCIPLINE AND ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE (DAC)

A Discipline and Anti-Ragging Committee (DAC) is a college committee that works to maintain discipline and prevent ragging on campus.

- The DAC works to prevent ragging and eve-teasing in and around the college.
- The DAC takes action against students who engage in ragging, such as suspending them from classes or withholding scholarships.
- The DAC works to create a safe and motivating environment for students.
- The DAC addresses complaints about ragging and investigates them in accordance with government and university procedures.
- The DAC educates students about the evils of ragging and how to prevent it.
- The DAC maintains records of the cases it investigates and submits them to the IQAC Committee.
- Ragging is prohibited in and outside the college, and students who are victims of ragging should inform the CR.

ANTI-SEXUAL HARASSMENT CELL

- The Supreme Court of India's 1997 Vishaka judgment made it mandatory for institutions to establish anti-sexual harassment committees. The judgment also stated that sexual harassment is a violation of fundamental rights under the Constitution of India.
- An anti-sexual harassment committee investigates and responds to complaints of sexual harassment.
- The committee's goal is to create a safe and harassment-free environment. This includes educating people about sexual harassment and providing information on how to report it.
- To help women to realize their rights of freedom.
- To treat sexual harassment as a misconduct and initiate punitive actions for such misconduct.
- To assist the aggrieved woman to place the complaint.
- To safe guard the one who is victimized.
- To educate and train students about sexual harassment.
