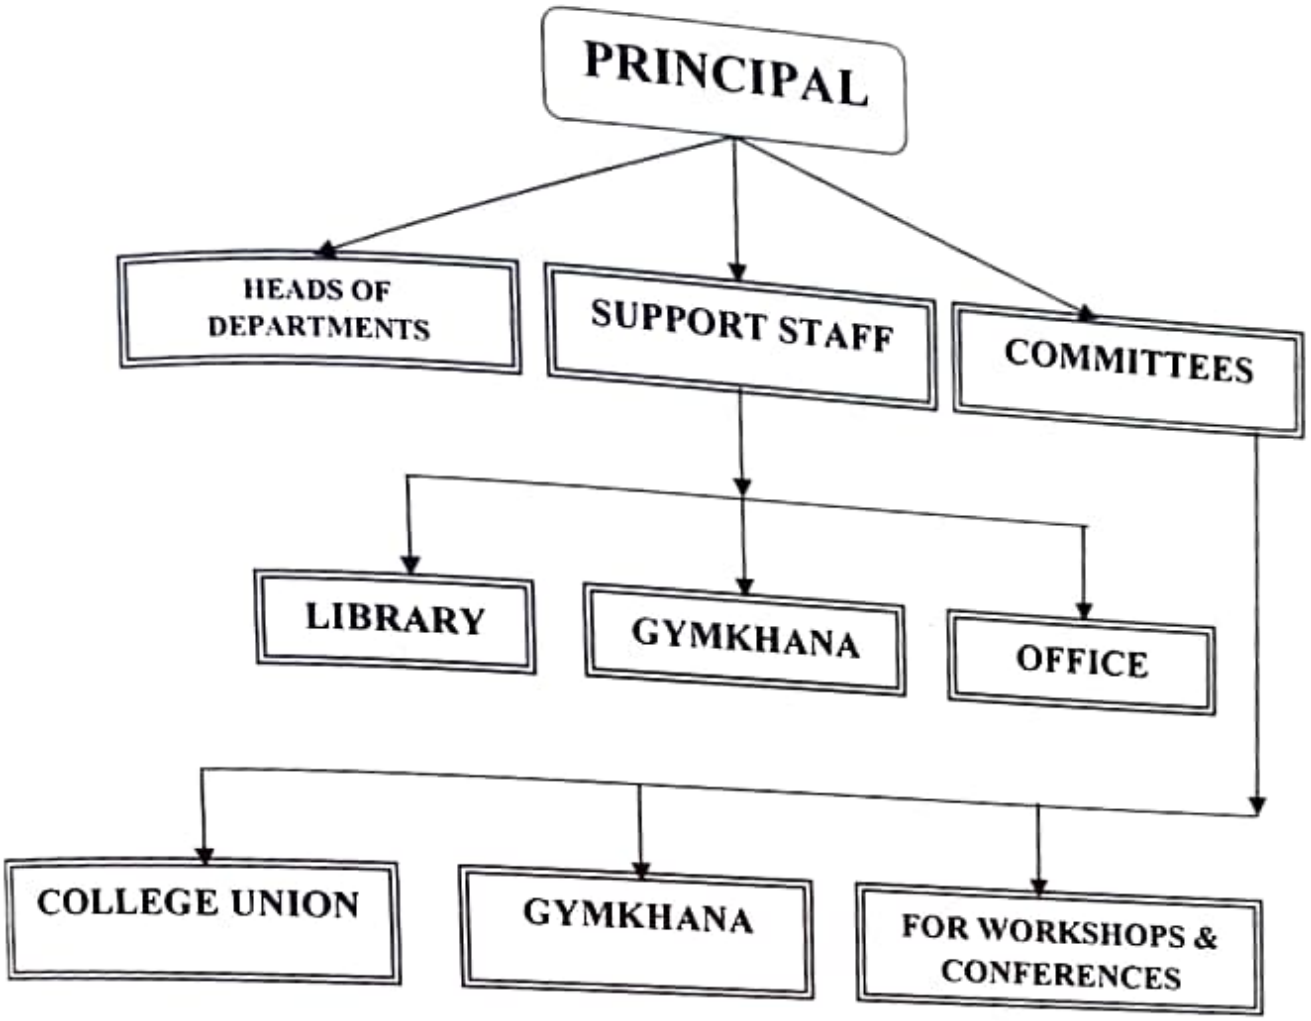
6.1.6.



- The Principal is repository of all powers and responsibilities. One individual alone cannot do everything. Hence, he delegates his authorities, responsibilities with colleagues.
- The Principal is ably assisted by the well trained and seasoned Heads of Departments and office staff who handle various aspects, like establishment, finance, scholarships, admission, examination, curricular and co-curricular activities
- Teachers are also assigned suitable administrative responsibilities.
- HODs carry out departmental administration on day today basis. They are assigned the task of allotment of classes, sharing of departmental work, verification of diaries, granting permission at departmental level for availing oneself of leave facilities, etc.
- Thus the institution ensures decentralization and transparency in administration.
- The menial staff acts as a lubricant in carrying out various tasks of day-to-day administration. Principal, NAAC- IQAC Coordinator, Heads of departments and Chairpersons of Committees ensure effective co-ordination among various sections and personnel of the college so as to achieve higher quality of institution's educational provisions.
