Alumni Association

A Brief Report on the activities conducted by Alumni Association for the period from 2017-18 to 2021- 22

The Alumni Association of the college has been established way back in 1970, by our founder principal Late.Dr. V. V. Bagalakoti, who were a very good administrator and a man of foresight. Its contribution to the academic and extracurricular activities of our college is enormous. It has been working actively as a bridge between the alumni and the mother institution. The following are the most important contributions of Alumni association to the college.

1. Construction of open air theatre.
2. Donated 25 Lecture stands.
3. Donated 100 chairs to the college library.
4. Installed 3 sign boards, wall paper boards and notice boards.
5. Erected college main steel gate on the western side of the college premises.
6. Donated college granite emblem.
7. Installed rolling shields for the meritorious boys and girls of Arts, Science and Commerce departments, which are given on the eve of college annual day besides Rs. 1000/- cash prize is also given to these meritorious boys and girls.
8. It is worthy to note that the good numbers of alumni of college have been working in various capacities and holding key posts in public and private sectors and even in the political fields. Shri Gopal Hosur, IPS who headed the team of capturing the Veerappanna has worked as team leader and even worked as DIG. Good numbers of alumni have been working as Lawyers, teachers, bankers, businessman, engineers and class I and class II officers. Smt. Bharati Holikeri has been working as IAS officer.
