About Gokak :

Gokak city has its own history. Nature has been kind to this place with the ranges of hills on one side and the vast black soil on the other. The river Ghataprabha rushes forth in a majestic manner on the north side of the city. Before she passes through Gokak city, she dashes down through a cleft of 167ft, to form a famous Gokak Falls. Her waters have been harnessed and hydroelectric power is generated to run the well-known Gokak Mills since long. The hanging bridge across the river adds to the dreamy charm of the beautiful picture painted by Mother Nature. Another dancing river Markandeya joins river Ghataprabha to form "Holy Sangam" on north-west side of the Gokak city. The river Markandeya, near village Godachinmataki, dashes down through 43ft step wise hill plates to form another Godachinmataki Falls.

Hidkal Dam & Dhupdal Barrage are constructed across river Ghataprabha to facilitate agriculture in this area. The area of Dhupdal barrage later have attracted beautiful birds thus forming Ghataprabha Bird Sanctuary. Nearly twenty types of birds visit this sanctuary during different seasons of the year.

Gokak is famous for unique sweet "Kardant" relished and enjoyed by many across India and World. Handicraft organizations in this city prepare artificial fruits from light weight coral wood and paint them nearly to mimic natural ones. These fruit boxes are traditional gift items and decorate the show cases of many in this region.
